

May 2023

Hello,

My name is Matthew Jertberg. Many of you may have recently read in my family's recent prayerletter about the upcoming mission's trip to the Solomon Islands that my mother, Grace, and I are taking.

This is an exciting opportunity for me to go on a mission's trip. While there, I will be able to see mission work done in another part of the world, help the missionaries there in any work that they have, and travel along with my mom. I will also have a chance to preach several times in the afternoon Bible studies on Sunday. I am somewhat nervous about this, but it will be a great learning experience for me as I prepare to be a missionary in the future. I will also have the opportunity to go on village outreaches twice a week and give a presentation of Madagascar and our work here.

For this trip, I am trying to raise 2,500 dollars to cover the expenses. If you would like to help, you can send a check to BMFP (www.bmfp.org/donate) with a memo, "Matthew Jertberg's mission's trip". Thank you in advance for your prayers for the many aspects of this trip. God bless!

Praising Him,
Matthew Jertberg
