

Dear Friends,

Hello, I am Sarah Jertberg. I am a missionary kid here in Madagascar. I am 16 years old. I am in mostly 11th grade but have a few books in 10th and 12th. In my free time, I like to read books and play piano, but I also help Mom and Dad a lot with the babies and cooking.

When I finish high school, I would like to go to Bible college. After college, I might become a missionary here in Madagascar, but I am still not sure if that is God's will for me.

In about two weeks, I will have the opportunity to go on a mission's trip to the Solomon Islands with my mom and youngest brother, Jeremiah, to help our missionary friends. I will help my mom by taking care of Jeremiah as she delivers their new baby. I will also help the missionaries by watching the kids, cooking, teaching a Sunday school class, singing a duet with Mom, helping paint their church, and other things. We will be there for one and a half to two weeks. While on this trip, I will very much appreciate your prayers and any financial support that you feel led to give. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Sarah Jertberg (Is. 41:10)
